What others have said about the course:

This course has been of profound value; it is as though all we are learning and experiencing is drawing the strings of the life gently, yet firmly together. It is food for the soul. I cannot recommend it highly enough! Christy Bernat

The class has totally transformed my beingness in the world. I have been cracked open like a snake who sheds its skin . . . Expansion! Lynn Daniels

Knowing myself, my qualities and tendencies has allowed me to navigate life with less struggle and more kindness to others. It has been truly life changing and empowering - allowing me to move from a 'victim' of life's situations to a dynamic creator of life experiences. Emilie Spear
